

Congressional Record.

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE SIXTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS FOURTH SESSION.

SENATE.

MONDAY, December 4, 1922.

The first Monday in December being the day prescribed by the Constitution of the United States for the annual meeting of Congress, the fourth session of the Sixty-seventh Congress commenced this day.

The Senate assembled in its Chamber at the Capitol at 12 o'clock meridian.

The VICE PRESIDENT (CALVIN COOLIDGE, of Massachusetts) called the Senate to order.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, as we come together for this opening session we pray Thee for Thy blessing and guidance. We thank Thee for all the way Thou hast been leading us, for every mercy vouchsafed, and for Thy grace in time of need and of perplexity. We humbly beseech Thee that these days following may be freighted with Thy goodness and that great good may result therefrom. We ask in Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

CALL OF THE ROLL.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The hour having arrived for the opening of the session of Congress, the Secretary will call the roll for the ascertainment of a quorum.

NOTIFICATION TO THE HOUSE.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 371), which was read by the Assistant Secretary (Henry M. Rose), considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled, and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 372), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed, to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives, to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled, and that Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The VICE PRESIDENT appointed Mr. LODGE and Mr. UNDERWOOD the committee on the part of the Senate.

HOUR OF DAILY MEETING.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 373), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the hour of daily meeting of the Senate be 12 o'clock meridian until otherwise ordered.

Mr. LODGE. In order that the committee just appointed may have an opportunity to notify the President and to carry out the order of the Senate, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 8 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 5, 1922, at 12 o'clock meridian.
